OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union [illegible]
Arise and defend [illegible]
Whose blood bought the banner [illegible]

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 21 1862

The Proclamation of the President

The President fully recognizes the principle that God rules in the affairs of nations. When the terrible immensity of the rebellion was forced upon His consideration and the destiny of this Government and the hopes of man over the world were manifestly in jeopardy, we all recollect that the President called upon the loyal people of the nation to meet in religious assemblies and to implore the kindness of Jehovah in behalf of our nation. We recollect the manner in which the people of our own city responded to this invitation of the President. Secession for the day here hid its gorgon head. The people gathered, and there was one spontaneous prayer went up to the throne of the Most High. We confessed our national sins—ingratitude and pride—a forgetfulness that God was the author of all good—and implored Him to remember the people that He had led as by the hand since they first landed upon the shores of this country and had prospered until they had become one of the most powerful nations of the earth. We acknowledged His chastisements in this rebellion—our humiliation in the progress of rebellion—and we implored God not to forsake us but again to restore our Government and Union to the condition in which it was before treason raised its arm against it. On that day, designated by the President, the voice of prayer went up to His throne from patriotic hearts over the whole of our broad land. Thousands who dared not utter a patriotic sentiment in the presence of traitors, poured out their souls in holy devotion and prayer to Him who seeth in secret.

The Government has been prospered in its fiery trials. We have deeply suffered but the power of the nation has been extended in the districts once occupied by rebels.—They have been shut up from the ocean. All the sea-coast, with some exceptions, are occupied by our arms from Galveston on the Gulf to the Chesapeake Bay on the Atlantic. Victory after victory has followed the movements of our armies until it is felt that the great contest for sustaining the government is nearly at an end. God has inspired our officers with wisdom and our soldiers with valor to perform mighty deeds and make mighty sacrifices for the land they loved.

The President again has called the attention of the people to the propriety and duty of remembering what God in his Holy Providence has done and is doing for us—in "suppressing an internal rebellion and averting foreign intervention and invasion." He invites us to acknowledge and render thanks to our Heavenly Father for these inestimable blessings; and implore spiritual consolation for those who have suffered by the casualties of war, reverently to invoke the Divine guidance for our national councils,—to the end that peace, harmony and fraternal union may be restored and that fraternal relations may be speedily established in all the countries of the earth."

There will be a hearty response to the suggestions in this proclamation, in every part of this land. Our eyes have been opened by the humiliations of this war to the discovery of that hand "from which all blessings flow." And forget it as we may, regard it as little as we do, it will ever remain as truth that "righteousness exalteth a nation," and that "blessed is that people whose God is the Lord."

The Advertiser appropriates for the benefit of John F. Miller the remark illustrative of his position: "The noble patriotic and conservative principles of the democracy." What these are with him are proved by evidence that cannot be impeached; that "Under no state of things would he take up arms against Jeff. Davis"! A pretty Governor would he be for Oregon!

Campaign Paper.—We learn that the first number of a campaign paper is to be issued this evening. It is to be printed daily and will go it strong for the Union candidates. A. C. Edmunds, editor—to be distributed gratis.

Speaking Last Night.—The theatre was crowded last night to hear the speeches of E. L. Applegate and [illegible] in favor of the Union candidates. We may probably give abstracts of them to-morrow.

The following dispatch was received in San Francisco, May 16th—[illegible] P. M.

[illegible]

Full Details of News.

New Kent, Va., May 10.—The pursuit of the rebels by Gen. Stoneman has been in every respect successful. His head quarters is now here, 20 miles from Richmond, while his advance is [illegible] miles ahead. The rebels are over in sight but are gradually falling back. The inhabitants along the route nearly in every instance have left. Cumberland, a small town on the Pamunkey river, 24 miles from here, was burned by the rebels. An engagement took place yesterday between our advance and the rebels near Slatter's Mills, [illegible] miles from here. 14 rebels were killed and a number captured.

It is said that the rebels on the Chickahominy will make a stand near its head waters, five miles from Richmond. McClellan is rapidly following them within a few miles.

Cairo, [illegible] March 13.—A dispatch from Norfolk, Va., of 10th of May, states that General Wool had just entered the city in company with the Mayor and Committee of the City Government. The last of the rebel troops left that morning and the city was left in the care of the Mayor as the representative of the civil power. On the approach of our troops the Mayor went with a flag of truce to the city limits, and an arrangement was soon made between the Mayor and General Wool that the city should be given up on a pledge that private property be respected.

During the march to Norfolk three regimental cavalry camps were found deserted, apparently a day or two since. Some six miles from the beach they found a place which had been prepared for a battle field. Trees and bushes had been felled and rifle pits built. Early in the morning it was ascertained that several guns were placed in position at this point. Some recruits of the [illegible] Virginia Regiment were captured, who reported that Sewall's Point had been abandoned on the preceding night by the four companies which had garrisoned the place for some weeks.

The enemy was found about noon posted on the opposite side of Tanner's creek with three guns. The bridge had been set on fire, and was still burning. At that time some six or eight shots were fired by them without effect and our forces, being beyond musket range, did not reply. The creek being about a quarter of a mile wide, our force was withdrawn, and started on another road considerably longer and reported defended by a strong battery, but not the slightest opposition was made to our advance and the fortifications, which were a mile and a half from Norfolk, were found to have been evacuated after spiking the guns. These works were of extensive character, and firmly constructed.

The forces arrived at Norfolk after a tiresome march, at 5 o'clock, without firing a gun. General Wool immediately issued a proclamation appointing General Viele Military Commander, and ordering that no soldiers be allowed to enter the city without permission of the commanding officer of his regiment or brigade.

The Norfolk Navy Yard was burned.

Gen. Viele has issued a proclamation, declaring that private associations and domestic quiet would not be disturbed, but that violations of order and disrespect to the Government would be followed by the arrest of the offenders. People are in a state of great excitement, and a strong police force is out to-night.

Numerous Union flags are flying at Portsmouth. The place is now occupied by the 18th Massachusetts Regiment. Gen. Viele has established his headquarters at the Custom House. The national flag was raised for the first time this morning.

The night passed quietly. At present everything is perfectly quiet, and order is perfectly restored. All public property is occupied. The policy of the authorities here is to allow everything to go on with as little interruption as possible. A general feeling of confidence seems to prevail. The Union sentiment begins to show itself.

52 guns were found at Craney Island this morning by Captain Case.

New Kent, Va., May 11.—[illegible] 000 bushels of grain were seized last night by a company of Federal cavalry at White House on Pamunkey river, 23 miles from Richmond. Gunboats arrived there this morning, and are now on their way to White House. The rebels had blockaded the river two miles below here by sinking vessels. They were blown up without much trouble. The rear guard of the enemy is at Tanner's point, 5 miles from White House.

Cairo, May 13.—The steamer Meteor has arrived from Pittsburgh Landing, bringing news to 11th May. It has been definitely ascertained that Gen. Lovell, from New Orleans, has arrived at Corinth with 30,000 troops. Instead of the rebels abandoning their entrenchments, innumerable forces of negroes are at work felling trees, forming abattis, strengthening earthworks, etc. Everything indicates a determination on the part of the rebels to fight our side. Preparations on a grand scale continue. Roads are being cut through the woods, and different divisions of siege guns are being mounted in great numbers.

New York, May 1[illegible].—The most destructive fire that has ever visited Long Island has been raging for the last four days, destroying a large amount of property. The fire broke out near Stony Brook on Friday last, and has swept over an area of 60,000 square acres, principally in the town of Brookhaven. A dispatch from Port Jefferson of the 12th says that the damage is variously estimated at from three hundred to five hundred thousand dollars.

Washington, May 1[illegible].—A special dispatch to the New York papers says that the loss at the Norfolk Navy Yard is much regretted.—The Yard will be immediately rebuilt by the Government.

The Military Board of Kentucky, who un[illegible] the authority of the Legislature have [illegible] the authority [illegible] the hands of the [illegible] say that the [illegible] with the [illegible] are creating unnecessary [illegible]

The Petersburg Express of the 9th states that a rumor is in circulation, which need [illegible] that the Yankees were landing troops yesterday at Smithfield with the view [illegible] the country and take possession of Suffolk, a distance of 18 miles.

The Atlanta Confederacy states that in the judgment of Beauregard he is well nigh flanked [illegible] He has a large army [illegible] It was [illegible] the fact that we have [illegible] for the result.

The Petersburg Express [illegible] dispatch from Mobile May 8th. The [illegible] Porter's mortar fleet, consisting of [illegible] vessels, is off Fort Morgan [illegible] Horn Island moving east [illegible] apparently feeling [illegible] batteries.

A dispatch from Savannah, Georgia, May 8th, states that the Republican says that the Yankees [illegible] river and coast batteries all the morning.

The Memphis Appeal [illegible] says: The telegraphic news from Richmond is painfully significant [illegible] McClellan seems preparing [illegible] Richmond, that Butler and Farragut got up to New Orleans.

Of affairs in New Orleans the same paper says that the Mayor and all the Aldermen [illegible] sent to prison [illegible] refusal to take the oath of allegiance. Great distress prevails in the city. Food of all kinds [illegible] extremely scarce.

The Memphis Argus says that the Confederate [illegible] at Pittsburg Landing was 7,000 killed and wounded.

It also says that the Confederate attempts with [illegible] have been disgusting fizzles.

The Memphis Avalanche of the 7th contains [illegible] from New Orleans to the 3d. Gen. Butler [illegible] St. Charles Hotel as his headquarters, and the Federal pickets had been extended as far as the crossing of the Jefferson and Jackson railroad. Four gunboats and one transport had started for Baton Rouge on Saturday morning.

A dispatch from Nashville of May 11th, states that Gov. Johnson has issued a proclamation ordering in every instance where Union men have been arrested and maltreated by the marauding rebel bands, that five or more of the most prominent rebels in the immediate neighborhood shall be imprisoned and dealt with as the case requires. In cases where property has been taken, full remuneration shall be had from the property of rebel sympathizers in the vicinity.

The [illegible] arrived at Cairo on the 12th from the fleet in the Mississippi. At the time she left a furious cannonading was heard in the direction of Fort Wright.

A dispatch from Monterey, Tenn., of March 10th, states that Gen. Pope's official report of the affair of the 9th says the rebel forces were 20,000 strong, and our brigade, occupying the further side of the creek, held them in check for five hours; when, finding themselves pressed in front and on one flank they withdrew to this side of the creek. The conduct of the troops was excellent and they withdrew reluctantly.

A dispatch from New Market, Va., of the 10th states that several arrests had been made of persons coming into the camp to settle accounts with the Quartermaster, who was suspected of giving information to the rebels.

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

THE MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin Book Store, opposite the Post Office.

ACCIDENT.—A coal-passer on board the Nevada had one of his hands badly [illegible] yesterday, by coming in contact with some of the machinery.

TROOPS.—Three companies of Oregon cav[illegible] took their departure from Fort Vancouver to-day, bound for Walla Walla.

SAILS THIS MORNING.—The fast sailing steamer Sierra Nevada, Capt. Huntington, is advertised to sail this morning at eight o'clock.

PACK TRAIN.—Mr. John Hatches' pack-train, consisting of thirty-one fine mules, from Marion county, arrived in this city last evening. It is bound for Salmon river.

FOR VICTORIA.—The Sierra Nevada has on board quite a number of cattle and mules, [illegible] for Victoria.

A FOUNDLING.—A new-born babe, wrapped in a pair of blankets, was left on the door-step of one of our citizens, yesterday morning. We learn that the little bud was cared for by the Sisters of Charity.

GOLD DUST.—Mr. Reed, the cashier of Wells, Fargo & Co., was kept busy several hours last night, receiving gold dust from returned miners on deposit.

NEXT STEAMER.—We learn that the steamer Brother Jonathan was to sail from San Francisco direct for this port on the 20th inst.

FOR THIS PORT.—The bark H. W. Almy [illegible] San Francisco for this port on the 16th [illegible]

[illegible] SHIPPING.—Shortly after the arrival of the Carrie Ladd last evening, we noticed [illegible] depositing the sum of $11,000 in [illegible] the house of Wells, Fargo & Co.

From the Upper Columbia and the Mines.

The Carrie Ladd brought down $175,000 [illegible] last night from Salmon river. It is said that the snow has nearly all disappeared in the Salmon river mines. Many miners are doing well—those who have their claims opened. Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express brought $75,000 in dust, and a $100,000 came in the hands of passengers. Several men returned from the mines who do not give a very [illegible] account of their richness.

We received the Walla Walla Statesman of the 17th through Wells, Fargo & Co., from which we glean the following items:

During the week ending May 17th, not less than two thousand persons and one hundred [illegible] had passed through that place, on their way to the mines.

[illegible] from Powder river were returning in large numbers. The prospects were not [illegible], but the water was too high to give the mines a fair trial.

There are about forty miners at work at the mouth of the Spokane river—making from [illegible] to twenty dollars per day.

The Columbia, we are informed, was higher at Walla Walla on Thursday last than it has been at any time during the five previous [illegible]

The Volunteers at Colville, recently, made a raid upon the town and broke open Mr. [illegible] saloon, and destroyed much valuable property. They also broke open a barber shop and destroyed it, and made attempts to [illegible] other establishments.

[illegible] furnishes the Statesman with the following items:

Mr. Jeff Standefer and party—who it was stated here a few days ago had found new diggings—left Florence last week to go in search of a supposed rich quartz lode, some [illegible] up Salmon river.

About four hundred claims are now being worked near Florence; yielding, according to [illegible], from ten to one thousand dollars per [illegible]

Wagons had gone as far as Camas Prairie, and would be able to go as far as the top of the Bird hill—25 miles from the mouth of [illegible] Creek. Met about 150 wagons between [illegible] and Lewiston, and from 2,000 to [illegible] men—much the largest train that has [illegible] any week this season.

The water at Lewiston was slowly receding. [illegible] one half of the town site had been flooded with from one to eight feet of water. Many of the merchants had been compelled to remove their goods to "high places." But one hotel in town—the Pioneer—was open, the others having all been compelled to close on account of high water.

The remains of three men were found, on the 14th inst., by Thomas Newland and Chas. [illegible], twelve miles north of Turner and Kirkland's place, at the Putaha. The flesh had all been eaten off the bodies by wolves, and nothing remained but the bones and a part of the clothing, together with some old [illegible] and a memorandum book. On a fly-leaf of the book was written the following:

"January 24th, 1862.

James H. Shaw, in company with Solomon [illegible] and Henry Dibbens. If you find this you will please advertise it in the Christian Advocate."

The letters found with the bodies indicated that the deceased were formerly from Syskiou county, California, and that the memorandum book found belonged to one of the men named.

Mr. Louis Marengo, at Tucannon, informed Mr. Mossman that he recognized the names as those of three men who stopped at his house fifteen days in the month of January last. They had with them at that time about $1,000 worth of gold dust and coin, and a valuable gold watch. These articles are supposed to have been stolen by the Indians, as nothing remained by the bodies when found but a buckskin purse and the articles [illegible]. The party had evidently frozen to death in attempting to cross the ridge from [illegible] to Alpowa. Mr. Mossman brought down the letters and book referred to.

Agency Notice.—Mr. L. P. FISHER is our only authorized Agent in San Francisco to receive advertisements, and transact business for the Daily and Weekly Oregonian. Office No. 629 Washington street, nearly opposite Maguire's Opera House.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already placed in a position which places it as well as its proprietor far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. [illegible] an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has but few equals in this country, as a proof of which the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma and the honorary [illegible]. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the leader of this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's residence at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. Hibernation of Animals and Reptiles

Professor Wood, in a recent publication, has given some very interesting details, from personal observation of the hibernation of animals and reptiles. He notices the remarkable fact that the animals which hibernate on account of the absence of food should belong to the two extremes of the vertebrate kingdom.

The squirrel and dormouse might lay up a store so large as to afford an abundant supply throughout the whole winter, but the bat, feeding only on animal substances, could not do so, and would starve but for the merciful torpor in which it is sunk for so long a time. For precisely the same reason the reptiles retire during the cold months of the year into some deep recess, and there remain torpid until the succeeding spring brings with it the needful warmth and food.

Take, for example, two of our best known reptiles, the frog and the snake, both of which disappear during winter for much the same reason. The frog lives mostly on insects, which all vanish during the winter months for want of their vegetable food, and the snake also retires to winter quarters because it lives mostly on frogs which have hidden themselves until the spring. Both these creatures, in common with many other reptiles, burrow deeply in the earth or seek some snug recess as soon as the autumn draws to a close, and safe in their homes, sink to sleep until the sunbeams recover their warmth, again enliven the earth with verdure, and the annual resurrection of the vegetable world has been accomplished.

Then the renewal of that process takes place. The plants put forth their tender roots, the leaf eating insects come from their winter quarters to eat the leaves, the frogs emerge from the ground to eat the insects, and the snakes glide out to eat the frogs. Such reptiles as the blind-worm which feed not upon frogs, but live on slugs, insects and such like creatures, are earlier than the snakes, because they find their food ready for them. Truly is it said, "The eyes of all wait upon Thee, O Lord, and Thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest Thine hand, and fillest all things with plenteousness."

Grain Prospects.—We are pleased to notice that the prospect for grain this season is nearly up to the average. Many farmers took our advice, and put in all the grain they could before leaving for the mines. In Lane county, we were told there would probably be more grain for harvest than in any previous year. In Washington county, some farmers have sown as high as one hundred and fifty acres each. Such men are staying at home, and have a surer thing than hunting a rich claim in mines which have not been prospected.

Spines.—Dr. Warren has said that comparatively few of the young ladies in this vicinity have a perfectly straight spine. This is the result of a bad physical education, and yet the parents of these children would form a society and make contributions to teach a tribe of Indians a better system, if one should be found thus destroying their race. Girls should have exercise, good, vigorous exercise in the open air. They should aim to be bouncing, healthy, strong girls, of graceful movement and real elegance of form, rather than pale, pensive, languishing creatures, chewing pencils and taking drugs.

San Francisco Fruit Market.

San Francisco, April 24th 1862.

Ed. Og'n Farmer.—The steamers Nevada and Pacific arrived from your port on the 20th, bringing, together, about 900 boxes of apples. All, or nearly so, were sold on the wharf at a little better prices than by the two previous steamers. Sales rated by the box at $1 50 to $3 per box. Several lots were sold at from 5 to 7 cents ₶ lb. During the past two months so much of the fruit has arrived in a damaged condition, having been touched more or less with frost, that it has lost its flavor, and is comparatively worthless. People have, in a measure, become disgusted with it, and the demand is very limited.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
Knapp, Burrell & Co.

San Francisco April 30th 1862.

Ed. Og'n Farmer.—The steamer Jonathan arrived on the 28th instant, bringing only about 300 boxes of apples, which sold readily at the wharf at from $3 ₶ box to 8½ cents ₶ lb., and one invoice brought 10½ cents. Strawberries have made their appearance in market. Prices are cheaper now, as they are becoming more plenty; they are selling at two dollars ₶ lb. Gooseberries have also made their appearance in market—green, though full grown in size.

Yours respectfully,
Knapp, Burrell & Co.

FAMILY

SEWING MACHINES

ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—AND—

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order; should make a TIGHT LOCK STITCH alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton thread or silk directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine and from thick to thin with rapidity and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less on both the under and upper threads and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle—curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary to heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather, and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order, neither should it require a screw driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to soil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side or ravel.

The undersigned are General Agents for the general supervision of the above unrivalled machines for the Pacific States and Western Coast of Mexico.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases, Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing, or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines are pleasant without odor, [illegible] vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During [illegible] years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of two of the sufferers from the stings of disease who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their case and cure, which are authenticated by [illegible] [illegible] The [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned deem it a duty owing to those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, to make known through whose skill they may be relieved [illegible] sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for [illegible] to enjoy my health. Becoming [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to the vicious practices of the [illegible] [illegible] youth, depressed in [illegible] [illegible] perhaps on the habit of [illegible] [illegible] ordinary way. [illegible] I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as [illegible] importance—but who [illegible] a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] able hour [illegible] instead of relief my symptoms became more alarming in their nature, and [illegible] by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little or no avail. [illegible] [illegible] regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case prescribed a course of medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I [illegible] [illegible] immediately [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] ideas collected, the constant pain in my [illegible] [illegible] the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study and want of resolution, the frightful exciting and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges have all disappeared, and in fact in two months after having consulted the Doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With this view I [illegible] [illegible] the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical help, feeling assured by my own experience, that under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

R. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this seventh day of April A. D. 1860. Signed [L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

Marysville, June 24, 1860.

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not all of my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your institute with my constitution, as I thought, broken utterly, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do [illegible] to ease the pain in my back and head, and stop [illegible] my nerves so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from these symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the extinguishing of those infections which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

I enclosed fifty or twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited you may put this letter in the newspapers. I remain gratefully yours, THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the Incentive to gratitude.

Certificate.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies I yet [illegible] the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible]. While in this state and having previous to my [illegible] tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and my inability to reward him for his services, [illegible] which, however, [illegible] not, he undertook my case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it incumbent upon me in behalf of all afflicted to make the case public, so that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
